

Phone Interview

Chris Hunt: Hi, Jeanie?

Jeanie: Hi, this is Jeanie.

Chris: Hi, this is Chris Hunt, the Head Start director. Been talking to a couple of my colleagues, and they highly recommend you as a consultant.

Jeanie: Hi, Chris, that's very flattering, good to hear.

Chris: Well, I'm looking to develop some ongoing monitoring protocols for my program.

Jeanie: Sure, I've had experience in that.

Chris: All right, well, I have an in-service. I know this is late notice, but I have an in-service next Thursday, 10 a.m. Can you be there?

Jeanie: Let me check my calendar. Yeah, it looks good, I can help you.

Chris: All right, great, great. Just send me a quick proposal, what it's going to cost.

Jeanie: I think I need to know a little bit more, Chris, about your goals for the session, and what you're looking for. Could you tell me that?

Chris: Goals would help, wouldn't they? I have some thoughts on it, I have some ideas. Let me get some stuff down on paper for you. I know that we want to do the monitoring protocols, you know, but really, let's see what you bring to the table with it, and I'll send you some goals, that sound okay?

Jeanie: Okay, great, thanks, I'll look forward to getting that, and then once I do that, I'll send you off my proposal.

Chris: Okay, great, see you next week.

Jeanie: Bye-bye.
